

3 Barrell Court, Suite 100, Concord, NH 03301
(603) 225-4199 x300 · www.NHscholars.org

COMMITMENT THROUGH COLLABORATION

NEW HAMPSHIRE
COLLEGE
& UNIVERSITY
COUNCIL

3 Barrell Court, Suite 100, Concord, NH 03301
(603) 225-4199 · www.nhcuc.org

Agenda

November 18, 2008

Business/Education Partnership Event

Courtyard Marriott, Concord

Grappone Conference Center, Salon C

8:00 – 11:00 am

8am Registration and Buffet Breakfast

8:15am Welcome

- Tom Horgan, President, NH College & University Council
- Dr. Mark Huddleston, President, University of New Hampshire

The Importance of Partnership Between Schools and Business

Trish Regan, CNBC anchor and reporter; Co-host of The Call and Emmy nominated correspondent; Born and raised in New Hampshire

State Scholars: Preparing Students for the 21st Century

- Terese Rainwater, Program Director, National State Scholars Initiative Network
 - Scott Power, Director, New Hampshire Scholars
 - Gary Steinbach, School-to-Career Coordinator, Winnisquam School District
 - Emma Rous, Chair of House Education Committee
 - Mary Heath, Deputy Commissioner of Education
 - Debbie Tessier, Franklin Savings Bank and State Scholars Business Partner

Break & Networking

Engaging Key Stakeholders

How do school and business partnerships advance education and NH's workforce?

- Fred Kocher, President, NH High Technology Council
 - Tom Raffio, President, Northeast Delta Dental & State Board of Education Member
 - Michael Power, Executive Director, Workforce Opportunity Council
 - Tom Zarrella, President & CEO, GT Solar
 - Dr. Elaine Cutler, Superintendent, Litchfield School District
 - Will Arvelo, President, Great Bay Community College

Action Steps & Adjournment

Tom Raffio, President, Northeast Delta Dental & State Board of Education Member